"WIFF WAFF WABLERS" IS BIG CLASSEST CLEAN SHOW
AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

Amon Davis and Eddie Stafford are at the head of a big company of colored performers at this Booker Washington Club this week. The outfit is called "The Wiff Waff Wablers" and the show offered is about the best in the country that has been seen at this playhouse.

There is an abundance of good music, absolutely clean comedy, and plenty of dancing. The "comedy" is much in evidence, but so different from the usual vulgarity that it takes the crowd by storm. The various features are packed into the hour of entertainment. Probably the biggest hit is the male quartet which has been a great favorite with the girls and girls who come to the shows. Among other bright spots are a "Whale song" by Harry Jackson and the girls who sing "Down in the Valley." Eddie Davis, Ethel Wattle, Frank Holmes and one of the Jackson brothers, "Down in the Valley," Miss Wattle and the girls' "blues" song and clappy dances by Miss Davis and male quartet "One Is A Whale." Harry Jackson and the girls are a spiffy show and dance bands that hold the house until the drop of the curtain.

The comedy is well done in the play to give Davis and Stafford plenty of opportunity to keep the audience laughing on account of their funny and clever repartees. It comes in in employment and carries two special scenes; a railroad station and a passenger train where there is a real comic situation. It's a good production, has a real big shiny show and is highly pleasurable to the patrons.

Another edition of "Real Wed."

Another edition of "Real Wed." is pleased to learn that Davis and Stafford's "Wiff Waff Wablers" will remain at the Booker Washington Club with another and entire new edition of their show. The production can't be beat. It comes in in employment and carries two special scenes; a railroad station and a passenger train where there is a real comic situation. It's a good production, has a real big shiny show and is highly pleasurable to the patrons.

"Sunshine Sambo" Monday

The picture "Sambo" from the book and book of pictures, featuring "Sunshine Sambo" Morrison, will be shown at the Booker Washington Club with another and entire new edition of their show. The production can't be beat. It comes in in employment and carries two special scenes; a railroad station and a passenger train where there is a real comic situation.
